it's easy to get to Heathrow

from Sunnymeads
Wraysbury

July 2025

Whether you're flying off somewhere or work at the airport, you can now get to Heathrow by public transport quickly and affordably all through the day from the wee small hours onwards.

early morning to the airport

Early flight or early shift, early morning buses on route A60 operate direct from Sunnymeads and Wraysbury to get you to Heathrow Terminals 2, 3, and 5 before 4am, with free connections to Terminal 4 from Terminal 5.

frequent during the day

At other times, there are trains up to every 30 minutes from Sunnymeads and Wraysbury to Staines (where express bus X442 will take you to Terminal 5 in approximately 13 minutes) and to Felham (where the 285 and 490 operate very frequently to all terminals).

from a bus stop near you

Alternatively, new bus routes 10 and 10A operate on Mondays to Saturdays from Sunnymeads and Wraysbury to Staines Bus Station, where bus routes 8, 442 and X442 operate to Terminal 5 up to six times an hour, and bus route 446 operates to Terminal 4 up to every 30 minutes.
